

St. John Fisher University Course Registration Waitlist Policy

Waitlists are designed to support students' needs and desires to enroll in high demand courses. The waitlist saves students from having to watch the schedule of classes for an opening in a class section. It also alerts the University of the need for additional course sections.

If a class is full, a student can choose to enroll on a waitlist. When a student is added to the waitlist, they are assigned the next available position number. Deans or Chairs may reprioritize waitlists depending on students' class standing, graduation requirements or other factors. Moreover, there is no guarantee that a seat will open in the class, and not all classes have waitlists.

As currently enrolled students drop the class, eligible waitlisted students are moved up into the class when the waitlist process runs. The remaining students then fill in the waitlist spots the previous waitlist students had.

1) The number of slots on the waitlist is determined by the department chair and the Dean.

2) Any eligible student wishing to enroll in a course that has reached its authorized capacity may add themselves to a course's waitlist. A student is wait listed in the order in which he/she attempts to register for the course. Class standing (FR, SO, JR, SR) and/or other criteria as determined by the department or school may be used to prioritize students on the waitlist. Class standing is determined by o

lass p

8) In order to be waitlisted, a student must meet all registration requirements such as pre-requisites and class standing of have overrides in place. Students may not be on a waitlist for a section of the same course in which they are already enrolled.

9) If the student no longer wishes to remain on the wait list, then they should drop the